Art Hirahara - Central Line (Positone): Originally from the West Coast, composer/pianist Hirahara has been a fixture in NYC since 2003. His touch is often exquisitely delicate, almost as if he were painting the most delicate portions of a landscape. At the same time, his range of expression is remarkable. He composed all but three of the cuts on this disc. Supporting musicians include Linda Oh (bass) and Rudy Royston (drums) with the occasional addition of Donny McCaslin (sax). The performance is contemplative in nature, yet still swings with delight. Piano fans must check this out
